

Kenneth F. De Witt

704 South Shore Road, Edinburg, N.Y. 12134 • (518) 863-8199 • ken.dewitt@roadrunner.com

Employment

1966 to 1970	U.S. Air Force. Honorably discharged.
1971	Joined Dow Jones & Co. full time
1980	Part of the team that launched the Wall Street Journal "Second Front." For the first time this created a two section paper.
1984	Joined the editorial pages as a production manager.
1990	Supervised the pagination of the editorial pages that were the first to be produced electronically from New York to 17 production sites scattered around the U.S.
1999 to 2000	Part of 5 person team that vetted and then launched a new Hermes production, pagination system that produced all the pages of The Wall Street Journal and Barrons.
2000	Technology and production manager for the editorial pages with global and Web publishing including domestic, Asia and Europe.

Activities

1980s	President of the Parsippany swim team and also chairman of the Hub Lakes Swim League which included many lakes in northern New Jersey. Director on the board of Lake Parsippany, N.J., which was tasked with water quality, rip rap, fish stocking, algae abatement, drainage placement with respect to the various highways, parking lots and malls in the area. We partnered with other lakes in northern New Jersey to address common problems with the State of New Jersey.
-------	---

Member and Grand Knight of Council 3680 in Parsippany, N.J.

Education

1949 to 1962	Perth Central School	Perth, N.Y.
1962 to 1965	Alliance College	Cambridge Springs, Pa.
1970 to 1972	American International College	Springfield, Mass.
	BA in Psychology	