

Timothy M. Maniccia was appointed Chief Fiscal Officer and Treasurer of the Hudson River-Black River Regulating District in September 2019. He also serves as the District's Internal Control Officer and Procurement Officer.

Mr. Maniccia has worked in and with state and local governments for more than twenty-six years. Immediately prior to joining the District, he served as Chief of Staff in the Office of the Chair of the Albany County Legislature. His other public sector assignments include serving as Deputy Secretary for the New York State Senate Finance Committee, Director of Operations for Albany County, Senior Policy Advisor for the City of New York and Senior Legislative Fiscal Analyst for the New York State Assembly Ways & Means Committee. Mr. Maniccia is also a former Executive Director of the New York State Government Finance Officers' Association.

Mr. Maniccia earned a Master of Public Administration degree from the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs at Syracuse University and a Bachelor of Science degree from the University at Albany. He has also studied in the doctoral program in Public Policy Analysis at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.